

A.T. Still University-Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine

Announces a spectacular travel occasion and CME program aboard:

Royal Caribbean's ~ Adventure of the Seas
February 5 – 12, 2012

Don't miss this world-class opportunity!

Set sail for a 7-day cruise aboard the Adventure of the Seas cruise ship, plus receive excellent continuing medical education from one of the most respected osteopathic medical colleges in the nation.

A.T. Still University's Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine (ATSU-KCOM) is pleased to announce the fifteenth annual CME cruise!

Course Description

This primary care meeting will explore an updated series of topics including diversity and cultural competence, public health issues, dermatology, infectious diseases, pediatrics, travel medicine, diabetes and other chronic diseases. The 15-hour educational program will focus on providing current information on the diagnosis, treatment and management of patients with common medical problems. Invited faculty will bring to the program a wealth of education and experience plus the desire to deliver the kind of information that will be of practical benefit in your practice. All cruise program classes have been scheduled while at sea. The program will be educational and time has been scheduled to allow just the right mix of business and pleasure.

Responsibility – We reserve the right to withdraw the program or to make changes in the published itinerary whenever conditions warrant or if it is deemed necessary.

Conference Information

This program anticipates being approved for 15 hours of AOA Category 1-A credit pending approval by the AOA CCME. Tuition is $350 until October 17th and $400 after this date. Please register early! Tuition includes a CD copy of program materials and welcoming reception. Tuition will be refunded upon notice of cancellation prior to the start of the program (less $50 administrative fee).

Pre-Conference Program

This 2-day pre-cruise program will offer an additional 8 hours of category 1A, AOA credit (pending approval by the AOA-CCME). Tuition is $160 for this additional program. The pre-conference meeting will be held at the San Juan Embassy Suites Hotel & Casino located at Isla Verde, Carolina, San Juan, PR. (Discounted group rates have been secured!) The meeting will cover a variety of topics and will be geared toward the family practitioner and issues which are commonly presented in the family practice clinic. Please call the CME office at (660 626-2232 for details!

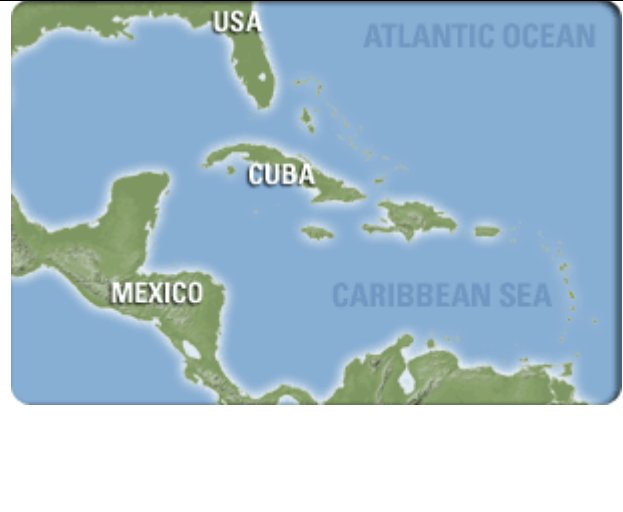

Accreditation Statement

The ATSU-Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. This program anticipates being approved for 15 hours of AOA Category 1-A CME credit pending approval by the AOA CCME. Each physician should claim only the hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Disclosure Statement

It is the policy of the ATSU-Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine Continuing Medical Education program to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its educational programs. Faculty disclosures will be made in the course syllabus and/or during faculty introductions. The audience is advised that one or more presentations in this continuing medical education activity may contain references of unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices.

Sailing Itinerary

	<h3>Southern Caribbean</h3> The most exotic Caribbean islands await you down south. Adventures are endless in this area. You can explore the Hato Caves in Curaçao.
