Permissions form for use of logos & copyrighted material

Thank you for your interest in using A.T. Still University logos and in reprinting our materials. We have a simple permissions process for these requests. Please read and fill out the information below.

Logos
When using logos, taglines, and names, please follow guidelines as outlined in our online styleguide: www.atsu.edu/communications/branding_toolkit/atsu_styleguide.html. For additional information, please call Communication & Marketing at 660.626.2272 in Missouri or 480.245.6265 in Arizona.

Reprints
To reprint content from our website, publications, or materials, please complete this permissions form.

Organization __________________________________________________________

Contact ______________________________________________________________

Item requested (If published material, please list where it appeared, author, date of publication, and page numbers.)

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Intended use ____________________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Date/location ______________________________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Other (please describe) ____________________________________________________________________________________

Conditions of reprint permission
• Permission to reprint any University articles, logos, or workshop materials is granted only for one-time use and only for purposes listed in the statement of intended use. Please apply in writing for any additional reprints.
• Permission does not include the right to syndicate, rent, or loan.
• If you wish to edit an article, A.T. Still University must approve the changes before it will grant permission. You may not alter or manipulate logos in any way.
• Proper credit for reprints must be given with the following line:

  © A.T. Still University reprinted from (name of publication) with permission.
• Please furnish one complimentary copy of the reprinted material for which permission has been given.

By signing below I acknowledge that A.T. Still University is the exclusive trademark holder of the A.T. Still University logos. Furthermore, I agree not to claim any trademark that includes the logos or images that represent them or any variation thereof.

Authorized signature ______________________________ Printed name ______________________________

Title ______________________________ Email ______________________________

Date ______________________________

Phone ______________________________ Fax ______________________________

Email ______________________________

By what date do you need the permission? __________________ Number to be reproduced __________________

Is your group a 501(c) (3) nonprofit? □ Yes □ No How many will view/read materials? __________________

Please attach a sample of what you wish to reprint or a draft of the project for authorization.

PLEASE RETURN COMPLETED FORM TO A.T. STILL UNIVERSITY. Scan/email to communications@atsu.edu

Fax 480.272.9725 (Arizona), 660.627.2128 (Missouri)