Accreditation Statement

ATSU-Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. This program anticipates being approved for 25 hours of AOA category 1-A credit pending approval by the AOA CCME. Each physician should claim only hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

"Activities Bringing Alumni Together"

Friday, October 10

Scott Memorial Lecture As part of the Founder’s Day activities, the Scott Memorial Lecture will be held on Thursday, October 9. The Scott Memorial Lecture Fund was established in 1963 through gifts of Jeanette Scott Thurber as a memorial to her parents, John Herbert Brice Scott, D.O., ’06, and Katherine Fraser McLeod Scott, D.O., ’05. The lecture provides an opportunity for Kirksville students to hear an outstanding presentation on principles and techniques of osteopathic medicine. Jerry Dickey, D.O., has been selected as the 2008 Scott Memorial lecturer.

Still-a-Bration Join the KCOM family for a Classic Western themed afternoon and evening of fun, food, and festivities! Children’s games, dessert contests and games for the “big kids” start at 4 p.m. Then, join us for a barbeque with bonfire followed by a dance. Bring the family and join in the fun!

Saturday, October 11

Founder’s Day 5k run and 1-mile walk begins at the Thompson Campus Center at 10 a.m. For information, call 660.626.2213 or email dmartin@atsu.edu
